

McCoy & Phillips Street Reconstruction Project

April 2022

Private Utilities

Mid-American Energy will also be working in the area to relocate various gas lines. This work is not under the direction or supervision of the City but is necessary to prepare for the proposed utility and street construction and to update their aging facilities.

AMU, Mediacom and Lumen will also be working throughout the project to relocate utility poles and communication line utilities as necessary.